

THE NATIONAL CENTER ON DEAFNESS
PEPNET RESOURCE CENTER

The items listed have been developed by members of the Postsecondary Education Programs Network (PEPNet) consortium for parents of deaf or hard of hearing children. To order, please visit <http://prc.csun.edu> and click on "forms." Fill out the order form and send (or fax) it to PRC.

PRODUCTS FOR PARENTS

New River Community College Parent Handbook #1059

This booklet is for parents who have a deaf or hard-of-hearing student going on to college. (A parent's orientation to college.) (PEC) <http://sunsite.utk.edu/cod/pec/> January 10, 2000. Handbook. Free.

Deafness 101 #1056

Deafness 101 is a basic introduction to deafness and deaf issues for the novice. (PEC) <http://sunsite.utk.edu/cod/pec/> Handbook. Free.

Diverse Students, Diverse Stories: Perspectives on Postsecondary Access Issues from Students who are Deaf and Hard of Hearing #1064

A videotape featuring a panel of students from different postsecondary settings with diverse hearing losses. Students share their thoughts and experiences on being integrated into mainstream institutions. Produced by the Western Region Outreach Center & Consortia (WROCC). September 30, 1999. Video. $20.00.

Diverse Students, Diverse Stories: Questions & Answers #1083

Answers to the questions faxed into panel during the satellite teleclass Diverse Students, Diverse Stories. Deaf college students from around the U.S. respond to issues regarding mainstreamed postsecondary education. Produced by WROCC. 2000. Booklet. Free.

Look Out World! Here I Come #1068

This videotape describes a day in the life of Carla Shird, a college student who is deaf and mainstreamed at Howard University. Carla describes how she accessed campus support services. Northeast Technical Assistance Center (NETAC) <http://www.netac.rit.edu/> January, 1999. Video. $20.00.

Americans with Disabilities Act: Responsibilities for Postsecondary Institutions Serving Deaf and Hard of Hearing Students Second Edition #1054 This is a desktop resource that was created for educators and administrators working in postsecondary institutions. Written collaboratively by Jeanne M. Kincaid, Esq. and Sharaine J. Rawlinson, MSW. Produced by the Midwest Center for Postsecondary Outreach (MCPO). Also available on-line <http://www.mcpo.org/products.htm> Handbook. Free.

Proprietary School Programs Resource Directory #1085

This booklet lists more than a dozen programs available in the Northeastern United States to students who are deaf or hard of hearing and interested in alternatives to traditional postsecondary education. Produced by NETAC. Booklet. 2000.

Transitioning to College for Deaf Students: College, Now What? #1061

A video and manual to assist deaf and hard-of-hearing students who are considering college, or who are transitioning into college for the first time. <http://sunsite.utk.edu/cod/pec/> (PEC) January 10, 1999. Video. $20.00.

Understanding Access #1121

What is the most commonly requested accommodation made of universities by deaf students? What is CART (Computer-Assisted Real-time Transcription)? How do professors communicate with their students who are deaf in absence of an interpreter? What are the benefits to the professor in having support services in the classroom? These and many other issues are explained in this videotape production. Deaf and hard of hearing students are featured, as well as an in-depth interview with a professor who has worked with support service providers for more than 20 years. This videotape is good for introducing the topic of access for students in the postsecondary setting who are deaf or hard of hearing. It can be used as a discussion springboard or alone to give an overview of understanding access. Produced by WROCC. 2001. Video. $20.00.

Avenues to Literacy

A panel of six college students and college graduates who are deaf discuss their paths to achieving literacy in English and sign language. Discussion includes: parental involvement, classroom learning, relationships with teachers and use of literature. Presentation in sign language with voice interpretation and captioning. (WROCC). <http://wrocc.csun.edu> Two videos sold separately, $20.00 each.

Tape I · Elementary/middle school years #1094

Tape II · High school and beyond #1095

Essentials of College Living: Curriculum Guide #1057

This booklet is a curriculum guide for a deaf or hard-of-hearing student orientation to college. Developed by Postsecondary Education Consortium (PEC) <http://sunsite.utk.edu/cod/pec/> January 10, 2000. Handbook. Free.

 The National Center on Deafness WROCC WORLDWIDE RESOURCES ON COLLEGE	PEPNet Resource Center 18111 Nordhoff Street Northridge, California 91330-8267 FAX: 818.677.7693
--	---